

Corliss Institute, Inc. shares our 'Aha Moments'...

In late June, we were contacted by the firm who is creating Mutual of Omaha's 'Aha Moment' campaign. This nationally-based and very interactive project consists of a road tour that travels to cities all

Dajuana, Mary and Jessica, Interviewer

The license plate of the studio in RI.

The mobile Aha Moment studio in Providence.

over the USA and shoots video clips of people in all imaginable situations who are asked to name and describe their own 'Aha' moment of realization, clarity, awakening, etc.

Corliss' video interviews of Dajuana and Mary will be on the Mutual of Omaha web site by early August, and the clips will be captioned so that all viewers can see/hear our 'Aha Moments'. Please check-out the ongoing blogs and Aha Moment updates at <http://www.ahamoment.com/> and vote for Dajuana and Mary at the end of the contest! We're proud to be the film crew's first deaf interviewees and to have had the opportunity to bring a great ASL interpreter (Elizabeth A. Nadolski) to the whole Aha experience.
